- c) building trust through transparency and a commitment to accountability;
- d) remedying harm and working to restore relationships when we do not meet these standards; and
- e) fostering spaces of belonging where everyone is valued and can thrive.

In this policy,

It may involve direct actions that are discriminatory on their face, or it may involve rules, policies, practices, procedures, or systems that appear neutral, but disadvantage certain groups of people. Discrimination may take obvious forms or it may happen in very subtle ways. Even if there are many factors affecting a decision or action, if discrimination is one factor, that is a violation of this policy.

It can involve words or actions that are known or should be known to be offensive, embarrassing, humiliating, or demeaning. Code-based harassment is harassment based on a Protected Ground. Non Code-based harassment is harassment that is not based on a Protected Ground. If a person does not explicitly object to harassing behaviour, or appears to be going along with it, this does not mean that the behaviour is okay. The behaviour could still be considered harassment. In limited circumstances, a singular incident may be recognized as harassment, depending on the nature of the comment or conduct.

Examples of harassment include:

- a) epithets, remarks, jokes, or innuendos related to a person;
 - b) posting or circulating offensive pictures, graffiti, or materials, whether in print form or via e-mail or other electronic means;

- 2.17 Hate Incident means non-criminal conduct that is motivated in whole or in part by bias, prejudice, or hate against an individual or group on the basis of a Code-Protected Ground. The conduct can be verbal, nonverbal, or written, and may manifest itself in the form of slurs, insults, harassment, abusive gestures, taunting, display of offensive materials or hate symbols, or other acts which may intimidate, degrade, and/or marginalize the targeted individual or group. The comments or conduct need not be directed at a specific person, and may be from any person, regardless of position or status. A single comment or action, if sufficiently serious, may create a Poisoned Environment.
- 2.26 Positive Obligation means a legal obligation "to do something" to ensure respect and protection of human rights.
- 2.27 Protected Ground means the attributes or characteristics upon which Discrimination is prohibited under the Code or by the OCDSB.
